Terminology Change

Hey Madent readers,

We decided to stay more true to the Japanese version and use Japanese terminology, instead of the western terminology we were using before. Therefore:

- "Mekashō" is now "Medashō".
- "Robokumbō" is now "Robashō".
- "Mr. Referee" will now be called by his original name: "Mr. Utschi".
- "Robotte" is now "Robutte".
- "Mekashō robotte" will now be "Robutte fight" instead.
- "Mekawachi" is now "Medawachi".

We apologize for the sudden change and hope it doesn't throw too many people off.
